

Biology Department Withdrawal Policy

The department of Biology does not allow late withdrawals after the university withdrawal deadline (60% of the term).

Students may choose to withdraw from the university after that deadline which will withdraw them from all of their courses. In such cases, the professor for each class has the prerogative of issuing a grade of "W" or "F" to the student. Students are encouraged to contact their professor in these cases.